

Director of Marketing & Communications

Marci Garrott is currently Director of Marketing and Communications at the Bishop Arts Theatre. Ms. Garrott has over 17 years of experience overseeing the implementation and successful outcomes of public relations, marketing, community relations, and communication initiatives. Ms. Garrott has served the Regional Hispanic Contractors Association and the City of Cedar Hill in various public relations capacities. In addition, Ms. Garrott is the former Director of Community Outreach and Engagement at Mountain View College. Ms. Garrott joined Mountain View College as the Director of Marketing and Public Relations in November 2008. In May 2014, she was transferred to lead the newly created Office of Community Outreach and Engagement at Mountain View College. Prior to working at Mountain View College, Ms. Garrott served as the District Director of District 104 under the Texas House of Representatives. Ms. Garrott's wealth of experience includes serving as the Executive Director of LULAC National Educational Service Center in Philadelphia, PA along with serving as a Special Assistant to the National Executive Director of LULAC National in Washington, D.C. She holds dual Bachelor of Arts degrees in Public Relations and Journalism from Delaware State University.

An advocate for the community, Ms. Garrott is passionate about the mission of the Bishop Arts Theatre to cultivate a diverse arts community while creating opportunities for local and emerging artists through performances and education.

